Panel
´Challenges for investigative journalism in Latin America, the Caribbean and the European Union´
(Public event)

Version 09.07.2025

Place: Biblioteca del Gimnasio Moderno
Date: July 27th, 2025
Time: 13:00-14:30 h

Time	Duration	Segment	Speakers
13:00-13:05 h	5 min	Welcoming Remarks	Alberto Brunori, Executive Director, EU-LAC Foundation
13:05-13:15 h	10 min	Inauguration	- Representative of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Colombia (to be confirmed). - Representative of the Delegation of the European Union in Colombia (To be confirmed).
13:15-13:20 h	5 min	Opening remarks	Frank La Rue, Moderator, Chairman of the Board, Demos Institute; former UN Rapporteur on Freedom of Expression. General introduction to the content of the panel discussion and its objectives.
13:20-13:40 h	20 min	Interventions First round	• Inga Springe, Executive Director, Baltic Centre for Investigative Journalism (Re:Baltica) • Nazima Raghubir, President, Guyana Press Association • María Teresa Ronderos, Director, Latin American Centre for Investigative Journalism (CLIP) • Paul Radu, Co-founder and Head of Innovation, Organized Crime and Corruption Reporting Project (OCCRP)
13:40-14:00	20 min	Second round
14:00-14:10 h	10 min	Question & Answer session	Opening of the session for questions and answers from the audience.
14:10-14:30 h	20 min	Concluding remarks & Acknowledgements	Final reflections from the panellists. Thanks from the moderator to the speakers and the audience for their participation in the panel.

EU-LAC FOUNDATION – FUNDACIÓN EU-LAC
ABC-Strasse 2, 20354 Hamburg, Germany – Tel: +49 40 80 60 11 450
info@eulacfoundation.org – eulacfoundation.org –@eulacfoundation